Timmy -
the year is over and you know that you are glad. You really have been nice, giving me little pep talks during track, and especially talking to me when I almost passed out "sprinting" the quarter mile.

THIS ISN'T
AN END!
(only kidding) good! good! good! have a good summer and have fun
in Morgan.
ps. you should be familiar with the place now.
Good luck.
Debbie

Timmy -
Well the year is finally over!
It was nice getting to know you better this year. We really did have fun at Morgan even though we had a misunderstanding at the end.
Well I hope you have a good summer and good luck at Morgan.
Love
Debbie

Creep
 I'm gonna miss you next year! I wish you would write me a letter. I think you are a nice person with an even nicer personality! Good luck at Morgan!
 See ya
 What

Tim William, our class president, (You would never know) well maybe you would, your always in the halls. Excused for some meeting?
 It's really to bad that we weren't in a class together this year, for I think we drifted away from each other. So instead of talking of the past I'll talk about the future, college. Are you nervous yet? I don't know what's the matter with me; I haven't got the jitters they'll probably come in August.
 I forget where your going but I'm sure wherever you go, you'll have as many friends and be just as successful as you were in Highschool.

Goodluck, see ya in the summer or Homecoming Jim Macklin

Hi
 Well you and I have drifted in the past year, but hopefully we will come together in the future. Remember what friends we once were you are so sincere and easy to get along with. A great job on the council this year. And make sure you write next year. We can always hang in there
 Craig R. Carter

IGNORAMUS, huh? and total a year, huh? and I had to put up a whole with you for a whole year, in the same class no less.
 What a traumatic experience, I suppose for you go right? Well, I hope when you go away to college next year that you'll just do that. ha! Good luck with do. Take care (crippled)
 Care
 Walter

P.S. No
 I DON'T WANT TO SEE YOU
 THIS SUMMER

A black and white photograph of a dense forest. Sunlight filters through the canopy, creating a dappled light effect on the ground and foliage. The trees are tall and their branches are visible against the bright sky. The overall mood is serene and natural.

Tim.
It's been an exciting year.
One will always remember. Have a great summer and lots of luck next year.
Best Wishing

Take a couple of random notes
And try to form a tune.
You'll see that your tune is more than the addition of all your notes.
It's a melody.

Take a melody of people where every single one has a place where he belongs.
His place in the big song.

If you are taken out of your familiar song, the one you knew by heart; and leave to sight read another, it will take you a while to find a place where your pitch is needed.
You may be out of tune when you start singing.

But you'll be happy like I was finding out that every melody, different, is a piece of music.

Thank you for a wonderful year. It has been a year during which I have learned a great deal about other people and their traditions and lives. Many times I have compared the two countries, Denmark and the U.S., and sometimes the U.S. turned out the better, and sometimes Denmark did.

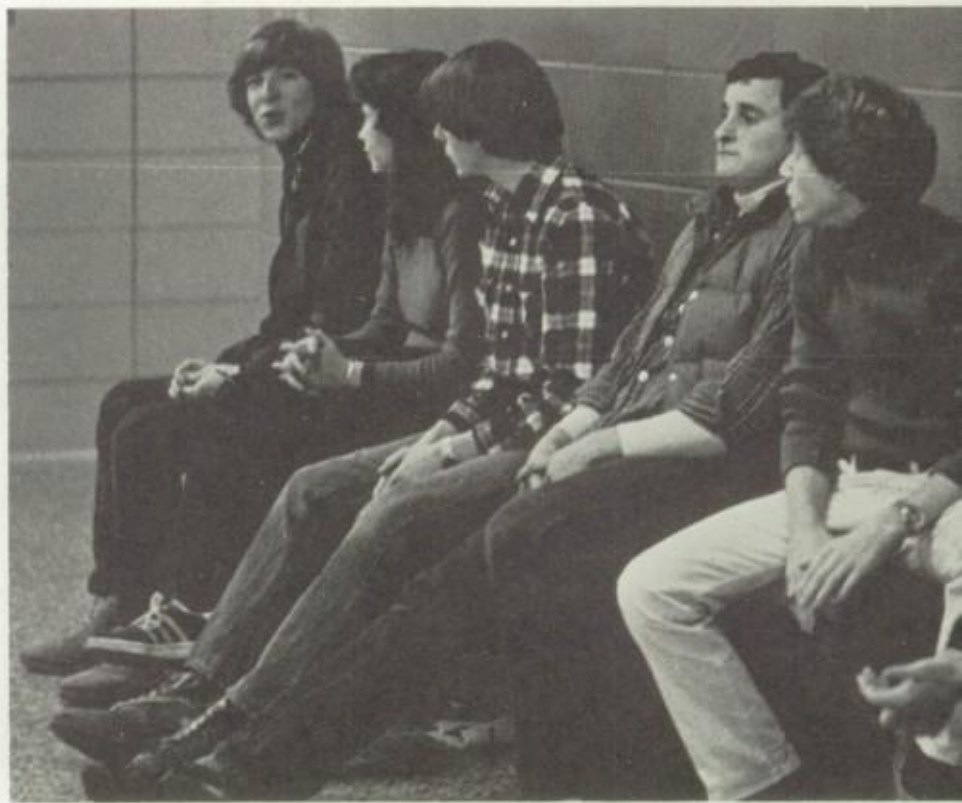

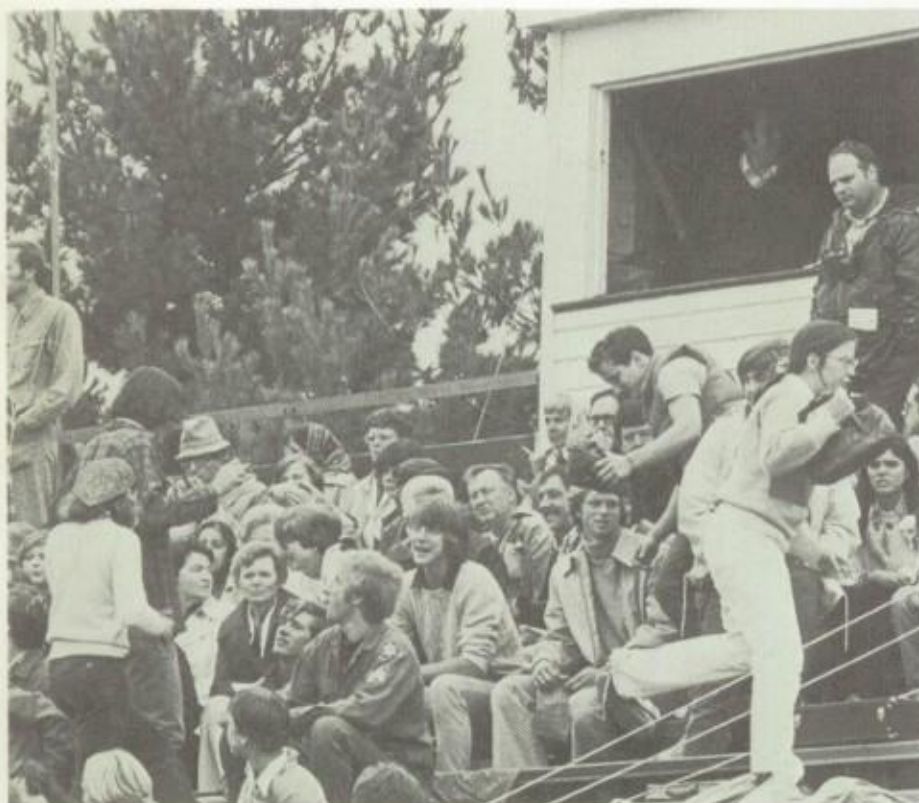

One of the things I compared the most was school. They are different from each other in many ways. Here are some of the things that are different: here you pick what classes you want to take. In Denmark, you can't do that; you would be together with the same students the whole day. You call your teachers Mr., Miss, or Mrs., but we call ours by their first names. Here, the teachers stay in the room and you go to their classes; in Denmark the teachers come to your class. These are just a few of the things; there are many more.

I can only say that I have had a great year, and I would say to everyone: Do it if you get a chance, be friendly to exchange students, and KNYT VENSKAB FOR LIVET (make friendship for the rest of your life).

dear Tim,
I'm signing here because I feel I have been one of the highlights of your year!
I'm kidding, Tim. Really, though I can't believe we've been together with 1st grade and we've had some great times. Tim, I'm so glad I've known you. I can't say I've known of the sweetest people say I've known of the sweetest people Friend. Thank you for being a great President! love,
Nancy George

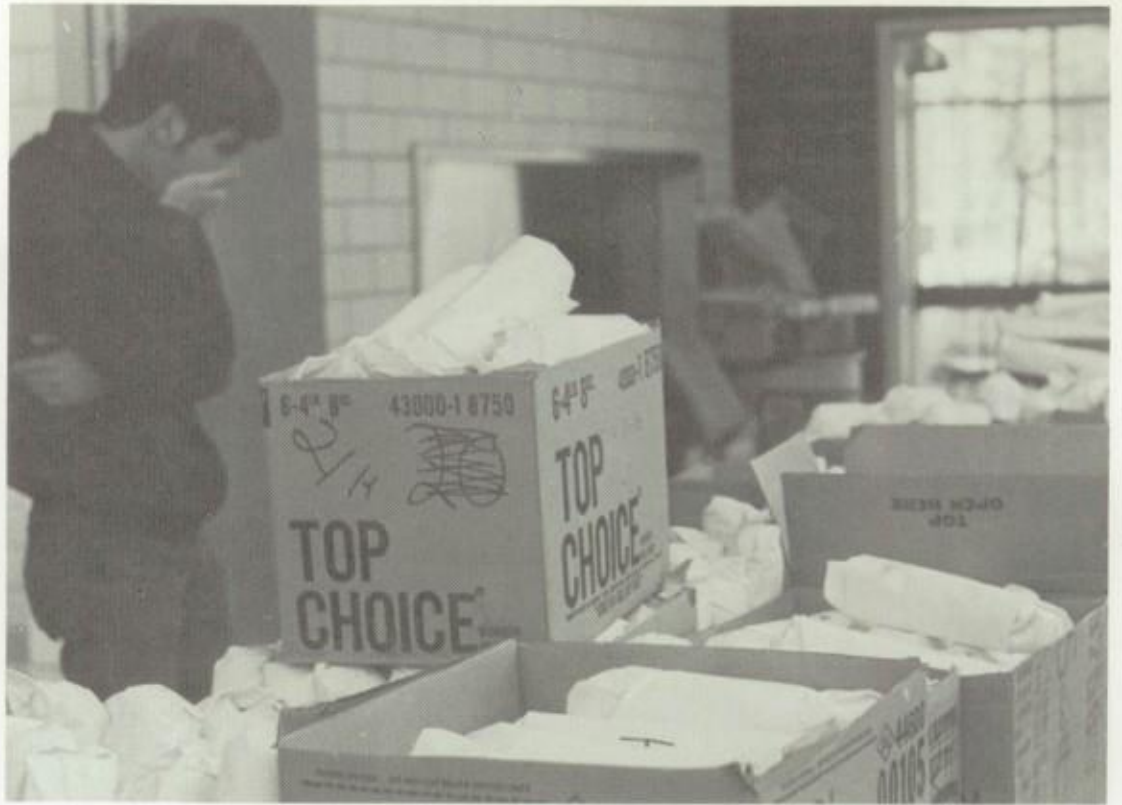

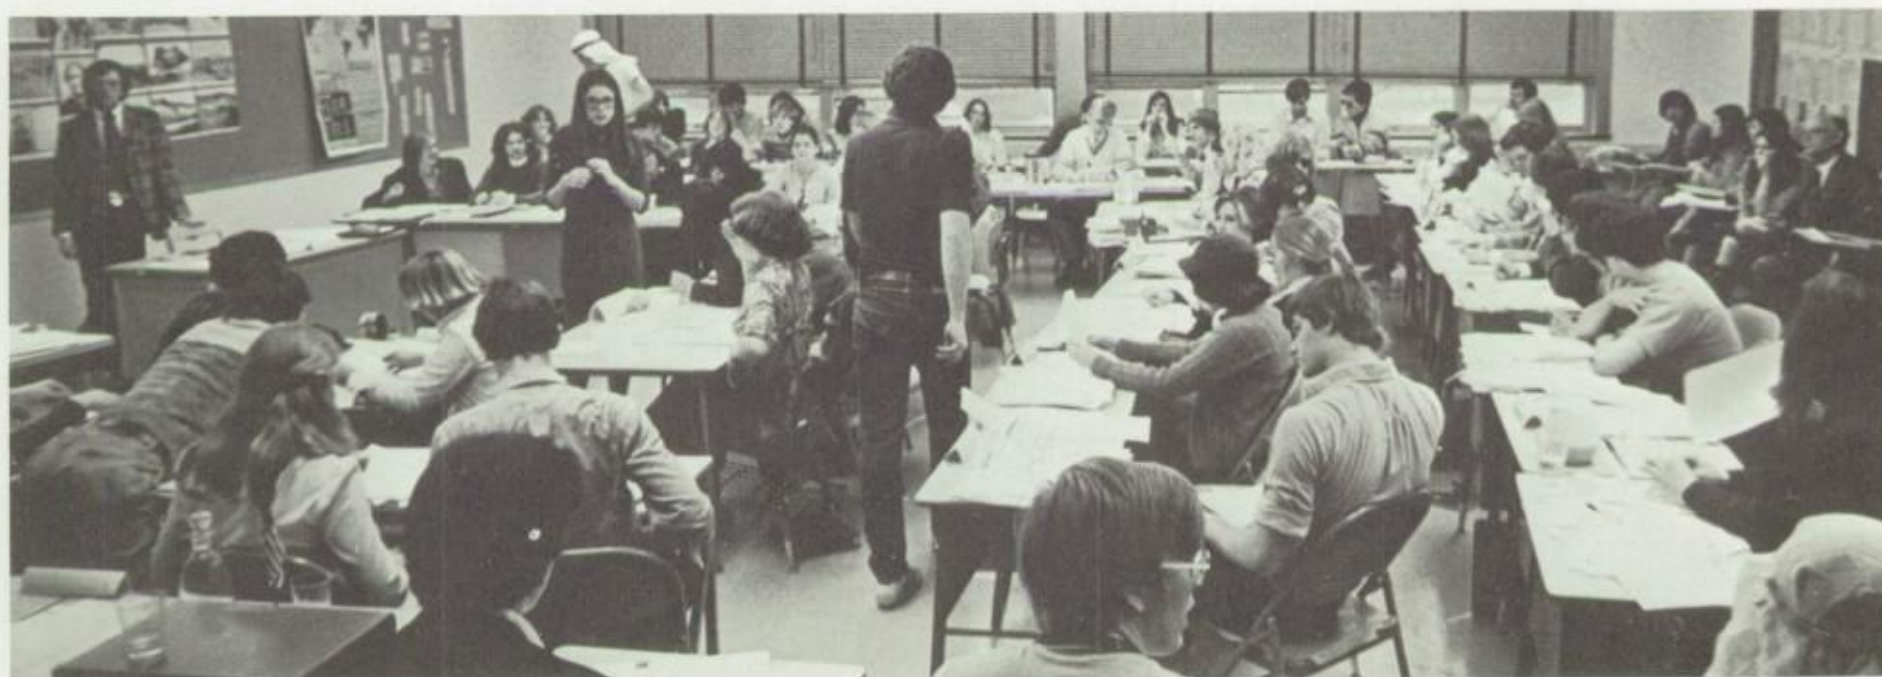

Dear Tim,

We had a somewhat strange class with Mr. Wheeler for Asian History. Creative writing was fun, even though I didn't spend much time writing.
Tim, you're a great guy and have so much to offer. I'm sure I wouldn't have made it through C.W. without you.
The best of luck to you always
Love,
Kayen

On March 4th, delegates from 34 nations met in plenary session in Room 228 to decide the future of mankind. Yassar Arafat, after addressing the assembly, created a minor sensation in the main office. The threat of economic embargo overshadowed B-Lunch as neighboring nations caucused against a background of ice cream sandwiches and cling peaches in jello. Syria regained the Golan Heights. The two super powers lost leadership of a Geneva Conference. Israel remained, isolated but not expelled. At three o'clock everybody went home.

Dearest Timothy,
 Wouldn't it be nice to have a picture of you all of my own! No, who wants it really - its only a picture + since you seem to be so scotch with them just forget it. Really tim making it through 1/2 a year with this wheeler what a feat!

The torture in that class, Chinese numbers, Quiz A's + Quiz F's oh dear! Crying + getting yelled at. LBB's + class trips oh boy you are so disgusting - (you just burped) Well Tim if I don't get a picture to- morrow just don't bother talking to me - the end of our friendship began in that the 9th grade student council - weren't those the days. Take care Tim + always keep in touch - Sarah E. Patel

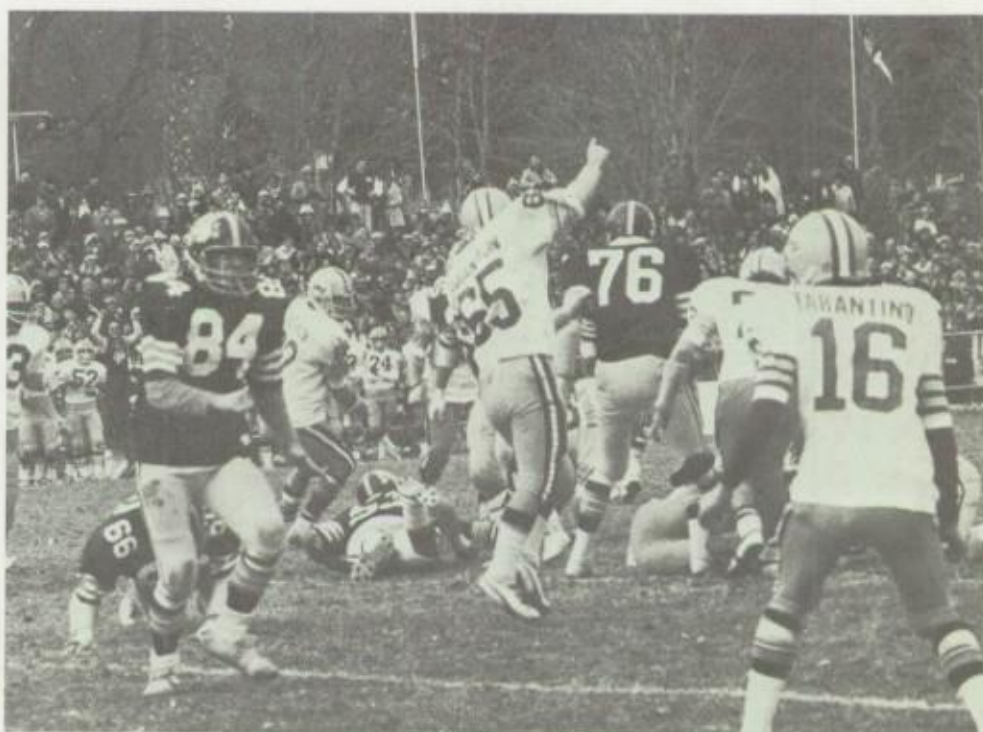

ROMEO AND JULIET

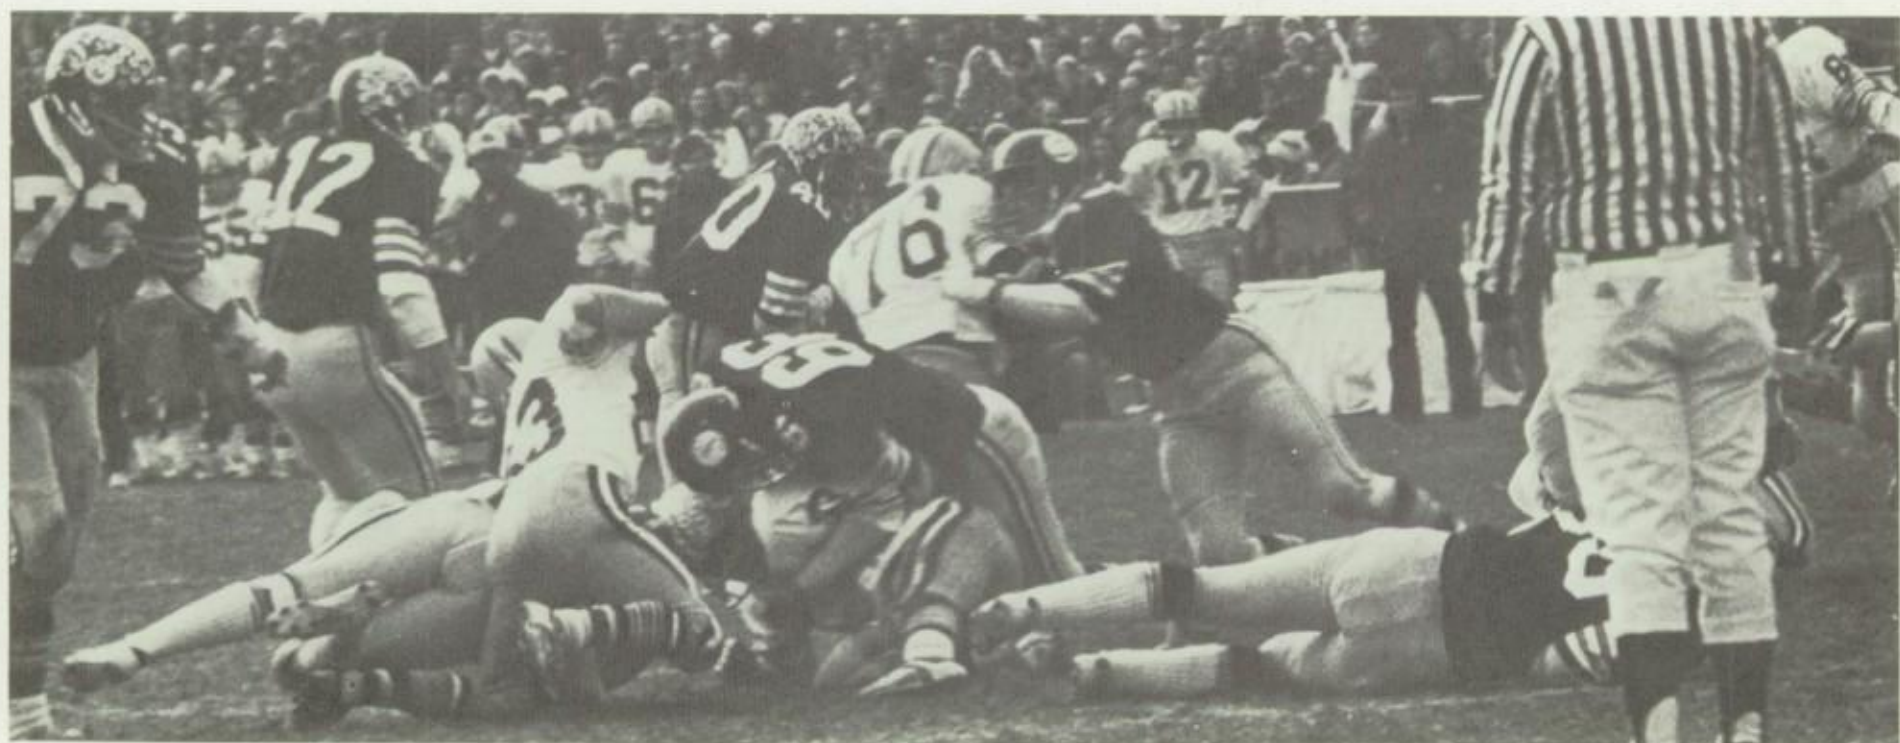

Homecoming '76 began with a whirl of excitement as the parade led everyone back to the high school for a pep rally full of enthusiasm and anticipation. Once again, Coach Anderson announced winners of the skit, float, hall, and window competitions. The Sophomore window — "The Red and White Knight Will Fight" — Junior "Disney" hall, and Senior "Dating Game" skit and float — "New Providence, Your Time is Running Out" — held the prizes. Homecoming Queen was Patty Maluso, and her court included Lisa Brounell, Sara Luppino, Sue Grimes, Sue Stanger, Cathy Howey, and Cindy Trone. Disappointed and discouraged but looking forward to the State's competition, the Hilltoppers faced a 20-6 defeat to New Providence on Thanksgiving Day. Saturday, the Junior and Senior girls struggled to break a 12-12 tie in powderpuff football, but neither team was successful. The Homecoming festivities ended with Saturday night's dance featuring the band "Free Fall."

Mary McVicker

This year more than ten thousand photographs were submitted to the nation-wide Scholastic Magazine/Kodak Photo Contest. Of the two hundred and twenty-four winning images selected, seven were by five Summit High School seniors. Late this summer all the winning photos will be exhibited at Manhattan's Kodak Gallery; from there, the exhibition will tour the country. We are proud to present five of the winners.

STUDENT COUNCIL

This year's Student Council got off to a good start with the successful Sub Sale. In spite of some trouble getting into the cafeteria, we managed to make 2,200 subs and netted over $3,000 profit on them. (We would rather not mention the chicken-loaf subs.) The Council organized several dances where people actually danced! Its lone movie, Rollerball, while it didn't demonstrate the critical acumen of the people who chose it, did spark off a round of interesting letters to the Tempest. The G.O. planned several fund-raising drives for charities, most notably the C.R.O.P. Walk-for-Hunger, and the Leukemia Society of America fund-drive; we also restored the Foster Child program. The Council helped in Summit this year. The Carnival offered more booths and drew greater crowds than did last year's, but the mysterious loss of eight hundred dollars robbed the G.O. of all its profit. A new constitution changed the structure of the Council and ended the already active school year on yet another note of controversy.

You're such a nice guy (on occasions), you were a fantastic president last times, and I'm glad you thought the year worked out well. Please forgive me if I sound unwell, but that's just my nature. I must excuse ~~myself~~ myself for all those terrible jokes that I said at Vicki's party. I was in a terrible going mood so I hope you forgive me. I wish you all the luck and success in your next year (why do you think I signed it here). Seriously, I must control myself. Thank you for all the ride home (remember our very discuss at Kathy's house). No a good year and good luck!

UNION COUNTY CO-CHAMPIONS STATE GROUP III CO-CHAMPIONS

The season was a long and rewarding one. Our mettle was tested time and again, and each time we withstood the nerve-wracking pressure. The bulk of the games was won on sheer hustle and an awesome defense. Records of twenty-five games and ten goals "against" were set, and for the first time a Summit team shared the county title. Most importantly, it was a season in which our summer dreams were realized on a windy fall day at the state final.

Dear Tim

We waited 12 years since we first started at Roosevelt and now that we're well --- we should have been closer seeing as we grew up together but the only reason we weren't was cause you weren't quite as bad as me. ~~Conversations~~ Conversations the Senior you were guiding light since getting a grade and you never let us down. Timmy,

For 9 years (since the 3rd grade) we've know each other in grade school we were really close, you, me, Patty, Ann You really told some great stories. In junior and senior high if we weren't together too much I didn't see you in the hall I never would see you. But you're still the same old Timmy - always a laugh. He's really been great know you. - and you better not let it stop with graduation Have a fantastic summer and make all go well for you in the fall

- Isn't it crummy that we worked so hard to be seniors and then we turn around and are freshmen again?

you know it's really hard writing on this page.
luck to you - Judy Johnson

Dear Tim -

I can't believe we're finally finished our high school years - a few things come to mind...

Tim counting money at the carnival in '76 - 1, 2, 3, 4 - "Hi, Tim! 32, 17, 21, 56!" also thanks for being such a great powder puff coach, cruel as you were, especially to me - announcing my latenesses, and absences - loud + clear!!

Thanks for being so understanding about Dad - we've had a few long discussions - I think you know what I mean.
I'll miss you very much, Tim - stay in touch -

love,
Deirdre

Dear Timmy,

Can you believe it! This is the last day of high school ever! Jeez! I bet you'll never forget this year with all your problems of being president! I hope I helped you but if you don't think I did then that's too bad! Ha! Ha! I can't believe we've stayed friends so long! Who would have ever thought that! (Just kidding) Timothy seriously I will always treasure your friendship! You are one of the nicest people ever and I want you to know that! I hope you succeed in anything you want to do! You better keep in touch because you'll never to the here the end of it if you don't! Take care Timmy & Good Luck always!

Congratulations

P.S. I put my last name so in years to Class of 1977 Love, come you'll read this and just crack up! Vicki Rock ☺ I'm going to miss your always smiling face! Ha!

Dear Timmy,
Hi, I'm very glad that we're finally graduating! But I think we've all had good times in the last three years that we'll always remember. You did a good job as President this year and you helped get a lot of good activities underway. The Dance-a-Thon was just despite the fact that I think that is what ran me down & helped pave my way to a nice stay in West Overlook Hotel in Town. Thanks a lot for coming to visit me. It's really how important it is to know people cars. I'm very glad that you & I have been friends through these high school years. Friends are the most important part of these years & I'm very grateful that you've been a good friend. Take care & good luck next yr.

Dear Timothy :-

Well, this is finally it, huh? What I've been thinking about since 9th grade! ALL RIGHT!
Anyhow, seems we've both gone in separate ways which is mostly my fault I know.
Never meant to weaken ^{our} ~~your~~ relationship you know - you are a very fine and real person and I hope you always stay that way because that's what counts the most. All those memories - Bulldog Garis, English class w/ gum in my hair - Oh I remember it ALL, TIM. No - but it was fun; if I hadn't met you and known you I would have missed out on some of the best times in my ^{life}. Stay Real. Love ya. Luck next year & future times - Sue

We cannot tell the precise moment when friendship is formed.
As in filling a vessel drop by drop, there is at last a drop which makes it run over; So in a series of kindnesses there is at last one Which makes the heart run over.

Timothy -
Renew me one! It's finally time to graduate!
I am truly psyched! Remember Mrs. Walser and how wise you were to her! You were soo wise!
Oh well you have one of the best personalities around - I mean that. I remember being depressed going to CW and your cracks always made me laugh and put me in a good mood.
This year will become one of my fondest memories! Good luck to you Tim whatever you do, whenever you go! You're a special person and everyone likes you! You'll do good with your life and you've always been good with other people.
Keep in touch & have a good summer.

Love
Caroline Hubley
(Smiley face)

Timothy! You
Huge, fat, uncontrollable, Uncoordinated, ugly face, Need! If you don't stop hitting my arm, my head, my shoulder, I will hit your grease, grime and I will have to leave - with their leader, and I will miss them all 36's - grease, grime and I will miss them all The seniors have to leave - with their fearless leader, and I will miss them all and I'll miss their fearless leader, and I will miss them all Tim, I was such a shameless leader, and I will miss them all we discussed everything under the stars and I could only know from you too. When we're going to where? Oh yes, to come.
Now that we'll be friends for a year, I learned a lot leave this year - our friendship means a lot to me and you and school are going to a Permal college, you someone to pick up your antics. Good Luck to kidding. Good Luck to you. Good Luck to you.
All my Love, Sue Stanger

Sim,
 After all these times of cracking on you, or rather you cracking on me, I don't know what I'll do when your not around.
 I'll probably get rid of this inferiority complex I've developed since I've known you. Anyway, after three years in high school, I think its about time for us to move on. I hope future years bring even more happiness than the past few.
 Good luck in all you do!

Tim,

There are alot of nice things I could say about you like, I'm glad that after your operation you finally got your weight down to 260, or that you are intelligent but I won't. My soul was filled with joy when I found out that you had received Christ into your life. Here are a few things I want to leave with you. Don't let the Devil fool you, Don't stop praising his name, and above all wise God don't play any games.
Get smart, loose weight. (Remember not as I was, but) how I am.

Dear Tim,

There are times when one can say so much and then very little. This is one of those times. I can write what a heavy scene Sammit H.S. was but why? I only hope that your eyes were opened so you saw what still has to be done.

Tim, you're going to be needed so always remember what you had to endure and try and help someone in their struggle.

I feel good about your future and I feel even better knowing that we were part of each other for a short and intense period.
Try not to get discouraged as you proceed with your life's goals. Hold on to your beliefs and ideas if they work for you. One thing - try to develop a more accepting attitude of people around you.

Tim, I'll close by wishing you the best of luck and much happiness in your future. Try and enjoy Morgan - I guarantee it will be an experience.
Sleep in luck,
Go where

Timmy,!)
(our Pres!)
I wish we could have had some classes together this year, but that's the break-we maintained our friendship anyway.
I love your senior quote - it's great, & so inspiring. Well, I'm lucky. I see you over the summer, so I can keep in stitches.
Sure you'll do great (or at least I think so - see just kidding!) Hope I see you over the summer, so I can keep in stitches.
Take care + God Bless.
Love, Peggy Boyle

Timmy,
Boy am I sad to see this year end & you have to be one of the sweetest people I have ever known. We have always had good times - one of the funniest times ever was in 9th grade. Remember the book "Nigger" you wouldn't believe it but I read that book last year. No wonder you are a very special person to me. It is friendships like ours that I love to have. Please keep in touch and see you this summer. Lots of love.

Dear Timmy,
Who and I going to cut-down next year when you aren't around?
I'm glad I got a chance to meet you this year. We had a good time in Mom Weber's class. Best wishes for a very successful college career and a happy life. And if you ever need ideas for organized games, I just let me know.
State Care - Enjoy Life. Love, Teresa Lundberg

Dear Timmy,
After so long in this school, it's hard to believe we're leaving everyone. I enjoyed knowing you - you could always make me laugh (until my stomach hurt). I know we'll see each other next year because we're only a state apart. God bless you and love always,
Debbie D.

Dear Timmy,
It's so hard to wrap up the year in one short message but believe me, you've made the Senior year one to remember. You are the hardest-working president that we've ever had and it is really fitting that you led us at the beginning and the end of our high school years.

Your cut-downs are priceless - you should make them into a book someday. Remember that horrible Tempest and boring journalism II class and all those sports articles you wrote - "Hustle prey" etc.
I'll always admire the way you were able to do all that you did, and still remain so cheerful. Don't ever change, and no matter what Muhammed Ali says, you're the greatest. God bless you and good luck always,
Love,
Lrene Kelly

Dear Timmy,

"Finger Face" TT

Tim, you are one of those rare people who has the ability to make people laugh no matter what the situation. I'm really going to miss your & Elsie's cut-down contests! Have a great summer + be happy always whatever you do.

Love,
Sue Gavan
